OTIOE—STOLEN HORSES.—A couple of horses—one a sorrel, the other a bay, each about sixteen hands high, probably seven or eight years old; the everel with a blaze down his face, and a sore on the top of his needs, the bay with both hind feet white, a little blaze in his face, and a collar mark on his need—were, on Sunday, the 19th inst., left at the house of the subscriber about five miles north-east of the city, near the Pendicton State road, by a boy named Josephus Hall, about sixteen years of age, who is now in the jail of Marion county on a charge of Horse stealing; and it is probable that the horses he left with me were also stolen. He says he was bringing them to this county from the American Bottoms, for a man named Edwards. The owner of the Horses is requested to come forward, prove his property, pay charges, and take them away.
